STEP is a Student Trainee Exchange Programme that enables law students and young lawyers to gain first hand experience of the substantive and procedural law as well as the culture of another country.

The traineeships are between 2 weeks and 2 years and can take place in any law related area: law firms, courts, public institutions, universities, banks, in-house legal departments, consulting firms and international organisations.

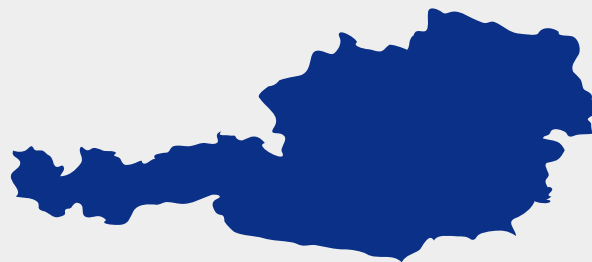

Each year ELSA offers traineeship opportunities all over Europe and occasionally in the other parts of the world. Before and during the traineeship, ELSA provides assistance in finding accommodation, applying for visas, when necessary, and organising social events to involve the trainee in the daily life of the local community.

In this catalogue, you will find the available traineeship opportunities. For further information about STEP check <http://www.elsa.org/traineeships/howtoapply.html> or contact your Local ELSA Group.

INFORMATION ABOUT SCHWAZ

Schwaz is a city in Tyrol, Austria. It is the administrative center of the Schwaz district. Schwaz is located in the lower Inn valley, and has a population about 13,000. At its height during the Middle Ages, it was an important silver mining center, providing mineral wealth both the Fugger banking family and through them, for the Austrian emperors. During this period, its population of about 20,000 inhabitants made it the second largest city in the Austrian Empire, after Vienna. Schwaz is 30 km away from the city of Innsbruck.

INFORMATION ABOUT MARBURG

Marburg is a little, but very nice town in the middle of Germany. It has a little bit more than 80,000 inhabitants, and nearly every fourth of them is a student. The University was founded in 1527 as the first Protestant university. Nicely placed near the river Lahn, the old city of Marburg was built on a hill with the castle of the „Landgraf“ on its top. Its called Philipps-Universität in Marburg an der Lahn. The juridical faculty is one of the four foundation faculties of the university. Its address is the „Savigny-House“ in the centre of Marburg. It was named thus in honour of Friedrich Carl von Savigny, who was the most important law scientist of Germany. Our ELSA-Group has about 60 members and is growing.

INFORMATION ABOUT FRANKFURT (ODER)

Located in the heart of Europe on the German-Polish border on the Oder River in Brandenburg, Frankfurt (Oder) stands for internationality as its most distinctive trademark. Due to its unique history and its special connection to the neighbor town Slubice in Poland, it plays an important role in German-Polish relations and in the European integration as a whole, being the meeting point of different cultures, beliefs, and also different legal traditions. A result from this development was the creation of the European University Viadrina in 1991, which is now one of the most international universities in Germany with students coming from over 80 different nations. In Frankfurt (Oder), you might have the great chance to visit two European countries at the same time, enjoy the peaceful and appealing landscape of the Oder River and last but not least make international contacts with students from all over the world.

INFORMATION ABOUT BUCHAREST

Bucharest is located in the southeastern part of Romania. As with many Eastern European capital cities, Bucharest was built on the banks of a river - the Dambovita. Bucharest has been the capital of Romania since the 19th century. Bucharest has many art galleries and museums, including museums that highlight peasant life in Romania. Visitors to Bucharest may also want to visit the opera or the national theater. Despite the massive reconstruction of the 1980s, Bucharest remains a Garden City, leafy and pleasant, with cafes open on sidewalks in the summer, and with boats on its lakes and rivers. ELSA Bucharest is the first ELSA Group registered in Romania and over the years has organised several important national and international projects, all of them being perceived as great academic and social experiences.
